ARTICLE VIII – CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

8.1 General. No director shall use, or attempt to use, his or her official position to secure, request, or unreasonably grant any special consideration, privilege, exemption, advantage, contract, or preferential treatment for himself, herself, or others, beyond that which is available to every other citizen.

8.2 Determination of Conflict. A director shall disclose any conflict of interest which may influence, or be perceived to influence, their decision. The question of whether a potential conflict of interest exists is a matter that should be brought to the board. A conflict may exist where the member has a financial interest in the project, such as a direct relationship in a development, a professional or personal association with the applicant, or the project could be influenced or perceived as influencing or having a direct impact on the individual's livelihood. Other members of the board may question whether another director has a conflict of interest.

8.3 Disclosure. A board member with a potential conflict of interest should disclose the conflict to the satisfaction of the full membership and the disclosure becomes part of the official record prior to any deliberation on the matter.

8.4 Deliberations and Voting. If a potential conflict is raised, the remaining Board members shall discuss the potential conflict and may vote to determine whether the conflict is significant enough to warrant abstention. A member abstaining due to a conflict shall not participate in the discussion of that item and may leave the Board seating area. The remaining members of the board may require participation of a member if the member is needed for the quorum necessary for official action or to conduct duties as required by law. In such cases, the member with the potential conflict shall not participate in any deliberation or discussion on the motion.

ARTICLE IX – DISSOLUTION

9.1 Dissolution Decision. A dissolution of the Corporation shall be authorized only by the affirmative vote of a majority of directors then in office.

9.2 Dissolution Procedure. If dissolution of the Association is approved, the Association shall cease to conduct its affairs except as may be necessary for the winding up of the organization. The Board of Directors shall:

- a. Pay or make provisions for the payment of all of its liabilities; and
- b. Upon the dissolution of the organization, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to the state or local government, for a public purpose.

ARTICLE X – LIMITATION ON LIABILITY; INDEMNIFICATION

10.1 Liability. No director and/or volunteer director of the Association shall be personally liable to the corporation or its members for monetary damages resulting from breach of the director's fiduciary duty, except for liability arising from:

- a. A breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its members;
- b. Acts of omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or violation of law;

- c. A transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit;
- d. An act or omission that is grossly negligent; or
- e. Voting for or concurring in an action resulting in:
 - i. distribution of assets to members contrary to law or the articles of incorporation,
 - ii. purchase of memberships in the corporation contrary to law or the articles of incorporation,
 - iii. distribution of assets to members during or after dissolution of the corporation without paying or providing for all known debts, obligations and liabilities of the corporation, or contrary to law or the articles of incorporation,
 - iv. making a loan to an officer, director, or employee of the corporation contrary to law, or
 - v. accepting or receiving a distribution from the corporation with knowledge of facts indicating that the distribution is not authorized by law;

provided, however, a director shall not be liable under this subsection if he or she has exercised the good faith, diligence, care, and skill of an ordinarily prudent person in a like position, and he or she has the right to rely upon the opinions of counsel, independent appraisers, financial statements of the Association represented as correct by the President or other officer of the Association or as stated in a written report by an independent public or certified public account.

10.2 Right to Indemnification. Each person who was or is a party to or is threatened to be made a party to or is involved in any action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative, formal or informal (proceeding), by reason of the fact that he or she, or a person of whom he or she is the legal representative, is or was a director or officer of the Association or, while serving as a director or officer, is or was serving at the request of the Association as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee, or agent of another foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, whether for profit or not, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, whether the basis of the proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director, officer, employee, or agent or in any other capacity while serving as a director or officer, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Association to the fullest extent authorized by the Michigan Nonprofit Corporation Act (the "Act"), as it exists or may be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that the amendment permits the Association to provide broader indemnification rights than the Act permitted the Association to provide before the amendment), against all expenses, liability, and loss (including attorney fees, judgments, fines, ERISA excise taxes, or penalties and amounts to be paid in settlement) reasonably incurred by the person in connection therewith, and the indemnification shall continue for a person who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of his or her heirs, executors, and administrators; provided, however, that except as provided otherwise in these bylaws with respect to proceedings seeking to enforce rights to indemnification, the Association shall indemnify any such person seeking indemnification in connection with a proceeding, or part thereof, initiated by the person only if the proceeding, or part thereof, was authorized by the Board of Directors. To the extent authorized by the Act, the Association may, but shall not be required to, pay expenses incurred in defending a proceeding in advance of its final disposition, except that the advancement of expenses shall be mandatory if a provision in the articles of incorporation, these bylaws, a resolution of the board or the members, or an agreement make indemnification mandatory unless the provision specifically provides otherwise. The right to indemnification conferred in this article shall be a contract right.

10.3 Nonexclusivity of Rights. The right to indemnification conferred in this article shall not be exclusive of any other right that any person may have or acquire under any statute, provision of the articles of incorporation, bylaw, agreement, vote of membership or disinterested directors, or otherwise.

10.4 Indemnification of Employees and Agents. The Association may, to the extent authorized from time to time by the board of directors, grant rights to indemnification and to payment by the Association, for expenses incurred in defending any proceeding before its final disposition, to any employee or agent of the Association to the fullest extent of the provisions of this article with respect to the indemnification and advancement of expenses of directors and officers of the Association.

10.5 Impairment. The Association may eliminate or impair a right to indemnification or to advancement of expenses established by this Article by amendment after the occurrence of the act or omission that is the subject of the formal or informal civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative action, suit, or proceeding for which indemnification or advancement of expenses is sought.

10.6 Insurance. The Association may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any director, officer, employee, or agent of the Association or of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise against any expense, liability, or loss, whether or not the Association would have the power to indemnify the person against the expenses, liability, or loss under the Act.

10.7 Determination That Indemnification is Proper. Any indemnification under this Article X (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the Association only as authorized in the specific case. The Association must determine that indemnification of the person is proper in the circumstances because the person has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth herein, whichever is applicable, and such determination shall be made in any of the following ways:

- a. By the majority vote or quorum of the board consisting of directors who were not parties to such action, suit, or proceeding;
- b. If the quorum described in subdivision a above is not obtainable, then by a committee of directors who are not parties to the action, which committee shall consist of not less than two disinterested directors;
- c. By independent legal counsel in a written opinion; or
- d. By the members.

10.8 Proportionate Indemnity. If a person is entitled to indemnification under this Article for a portion of expenses, including attorney fees, judgements, penalties, fines and amounts paid in settlement, but not for the total amount, the Association shall indemnify the person for the portion of the expenses, judgements, penalties, fines, or amounts paid in settlement for which the person is entitled to be indemnified.

10.9 Expense Advance. Expenses incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding described in this Article may be paid by the Association in advance of the final disposition of the action, suit, or proceeding on receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the person involved to repay the expenses, if it is ultimately determined that the person is not entitled to be indemnified. The undertaking shall be an unlimited general obligation of the person on whose behalf advances are made but need not be secured.

10.10 Former Directors and Officers. The indemnification provided in this article continues for a person who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, and administrators of that person.

10.11 Changes in Michigan Law. If there are any changes in the Michigan statutory provisions applicable to the Association and relating to the subject matter of this Article, then the indemnification to which any person shall be entitled shall be determined by such changed provisions, but only to the extent that any such change permits the Association to provide broader indemnification rights that such provisions permitted the Association to provide before any such change.

ARTICLE XI – AMENDMENT

11.1 Amendment. These bylaws may be adopted, amended, altered, or repealed, in whole or in part, by the members or by the Board of Directors, through a majority vote, at any duly held meeting of the Association to the extent not in conflict with the articles of incorporation, the Act, or other applicable law. Notice of a membership meeting at which an amendment to these bylaws is to be acted upon shall include notice of the proposed adoption, amendment, alteration, or repeal, and such notice shall have been communicated by the Secretary to each member not less than 10 days or more than 60 days prior to such membership meeting.

ARTICLE XII – GENERAL PROVISIONS

12.1 Electronic Signatures. Wherever a written instrument is required to be executed hereunder, an electronic signature, to the extent permitted by applicable law, shall be deemed to be a written signature; except that electronic signatures shall not be deemed to be a written signature for purposes of financial transactions.

12.2 Books and Records. The Association shall keep at the office of the Association correct and complete books and records of the activities and transactions of the Association, including the minute book, which shall contain a copy of the Certificate of Incorporation, a copy of these by-laws, all resolutions of the Board, and all minutes of meetings of the Members and meetings of the Board and committees thereof.

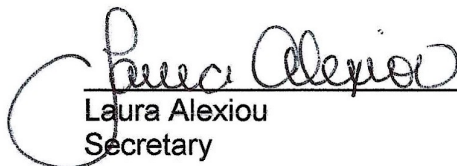

12.3 Contracts and Instruments. The Executive Committee may authorize any officer or agent of the Association to enter into any contract, to execute and deliver any instrument, or to sign checks, drafts, or other orders for the payment of money, notes or other evidences of indebtedness in the name of and on behalf of the Association. Such authority may be general or may be confined to specific instances. No instrument required to be signed by more than one officer may be signed by one person in more than one capacity.

12.4 Deposits. The funds of the Association shall be deposited in its name with such banks, trust companies, or other depositories as the Board, or officers to whom such power has been delegated by the Board, may from time to time designate.
